Please briefly present the organisation/group (e.g. its type, scope of work, areas of activity and if applicable, approximate number of paid/unpaid staff, learners and members of the group)	The University of Belgrade is the oldest university in Serbia, founded back in 1808. Today, it is a research-intensive university, and one of the largest and globally best ranked universities in the SEE and Mediterranean region. It consists of 31 faculties, 11 research institutes, and the University Library with more than 3.500.000 volumes. It provides education in sciences and mathematics, technology and engineering sciences, medical sciences and social sciences and humanities. Currently, there are close to 100.000 students enrolled in 375 study programs at the University, many of which are organized in English. All study programs at the University of Belgrade have been harmonized with the principles of the Bologna Declaration. UB has become a very prominent member of the international academic community and takes part in numerous international programs and projects
---	---

	(Erasmus+ Program, AUF projects, Horizon2020, Interreg, Ceepus etc.). Since 2019 UB has been a member of the prominent European Universities alliance Circle U. It is located in Serbia's capital – Belgrade, an exceptionally vibrant and outspoken city, with a reputation of a regional hot-spot of culture, entertainment and nightlife, with a large expat community, ranging from students to business and industry professionals, that makes much of the city's content inclusive for English speaking visitors.
