STUDY PROGRAM FOR WHICH A CALL HAS BEEN ANNOUNCED:

Integrated academic studies - Veterinary Medicine in English (330 ECTS)

NUMBER OF STUDENTS:

30 self-financing students may enroll in the Integrated Academic Studies in Veterinary Medicine study program taught in English.

CONDITIONS:

Candidates who have completed a four-year secondary school may enroll in the first year of integrated academic studies, namely: a general, natural or social studies high school, a veterinary secondary school, an agricultural-technical secondary school, a chemical-technical secondary school, a medical secondary school, a dental technical secondary school or a pharmaceutical secondary school and any other natural studies secondary school.

Candidates who did not study Latin in high school must take a supplementary exam in Latin according to the schedule that will be published on the Faculty's website and notice board.

In addition to the general requirements for enrollment in the first year of Integrated academic studies - Veterinary Medicine in English defined by the Call, candidates must also submit an appropriate certificate of English language proficiency equivalent to the Cambridge Advanced Certificate in English (CAE) / IELTS (International English Language Testing System).

CRITERIA FOR DETERMINING THE ORDER OF CANDIDATES ON THE RANKING LIST:

The order of candidates for enrollment in the first year is determined based on the overall success achieved in secondary education and the results achieved in the entrance exam.

A candidate for enrollment in a study program can achieve a maximum of 100 points, based on the overall success in secondary school and the results achieved in the entrance exam.

The overall success in secondary school is understood as the sum of the average grades in each grade of secondary school multiplied by two. On this basis, a candidate can earn a minimum of 16 and a maximum of 40 points. The overall success in secondary school is calculated by rounding to two decimal places.

In the entrance exam, a candidate can earn from 0 to 60 points.

ENTRANCE EXAM:

All candidates take an entrance exam in Chemistry and Biology. The test in each subject has 30 questions (60 in total) and each correct answer is worth one point.

TUITION FEE:

Tuition fee for all candidates: 5.000,00 EUR.
